

Explanation Number	Explanation
Exp. 1.	The transfer of State Textbook dollars (PRC 130) to State Instructional Supplies (PRC 061) was used to offset the state budget cut to the instructional supply allotment.
Exp. 2.	The transfer of State Teacher Assistant dollars (PRC 027) to State Dollars for K-12 Teachers (PRC 008) was used to pay for classroom teachers.
Exp. 3.	The transfer of State Textbook dollars (PRC 130) to State Non-Instructional Support (PRC 003) was used to offset the increased cost of retirement benefits and hospitalization.
Exp. 4.	The transfer of State At-Risk Student Services (PRC 069) to State Low Wealth Funding (PRC 031) was used to offset the increased cost of retirement benefits and hospitalization.
Exp. 5.	The transfer of State Academically Gifted dollars (PRC 034) to State Non-Instructional Support (PRC 003) was used to offset the increased cost of retirement benefits and hospitalization.
Exp. 6.	The transfer of State Limited English Proficiency (PRC 054) to State Low Wealth Funding (PRC 031) was used to pay for beginning teacher positions traded with LEP - the LEP teachers being paid from State Classroom Teachers (PRC 001).
Exp. 7.	The transfer of State Academically Gifted (PRC 034) to State Low Wealth Funding (PRC 031) was used to pay for beginning teacher positions traded with AIG - the AIG teachers being paid from State Classroom Teachers (PRC 001).
Exp. 8.	The transfer of State High School Learn and Earn (PRC 055) to State Low Wealth Funding (PRC 031) was used to offset the increased cost of retirement benefits and hospitalization.
Exp. 9.	The transfer of to State Low Wealth Funding (PRC 031) to State Academically Gifted (PRC 034) was used to pay for teachers and supplies.