Rockingham County Schools announces Joyce Smith as the Interim Principal at Reidsville Middle School

Joyce Smith has been a resident of Rockingham County since the 1990s. Mrs. Smith earned her Bachelors of Science in Elementary Education and Masters of School Administration from North Carolina A&T State University.

Upon graduating from North Carolina A&T State University, Mrs. Smith began her career in education with Guilford County Schools as an elementary school teacher. She has been a part of the Rockingham County School's family since 2006 serving as an Assistant Principal and Principal. Mrs. Smith has been the Assistant Principal at Reidsville Middle School since 2017 and has been integral to the school's success and a leader in establishing the academic program.

Today Dr. Stover announces Assistant Principal Joyce Smith will serve as the Interim Principal of Reidsville Middle School and states, "I am confident Reidsville Middle School will not miss a beat under her leadership."

Mrs. Smith says, "I am excited about the opportunity to provide continuity and stability to RMS family."
